Rules and Regulations

Attendance, In-Class Rules and Dress Code

- Makeup classes will not be held unless assigned by an instructor
- The instructor retains the authority to move a student to another class at any time during the school term.
- Only water is allowed in the studio; no other food or beverages are permitted.
- Tie back long hair in a bun before class. Short hair should have pinned-back bangs and a hairband.
- Late students need permission; the instructor may refuse after class starts for complete warm-ups and injury prevention.
- Proper attire is a must for every class; non-compliance with the dress code may result in being asked to leave.

(E) Agreement

Bayview School of Ballet Inc. emphasizes high training standards and attendance commitment. Our goal is to provide exceptional training, allowing students to decide their career path. The school's skilled faculty prioritizes students' best interests, operating on a summer intensive term financial commitment. Refunds are strictly forbidden, and instructors are compensated for the summer intensive term regardless of attendance.

Visit bayviewballet.com for our 'BSB Policies,' outlining the no-refund policy and fee payment requirements. Section 4 of the liability disclaimer, also in 'BSB Policies,' releases the school from injuries inside or outside the premises. Participants must acknowledge risks, and the school disclaims liability for medical expenses, advising suitable insurance.

I, the undersigned, hereby acknowledge and consent to all policies outlined in the 'BSB Policies' available on bayviewballet.com under the 'About' section.
